

Summer Reading Assignment for Incoming 6th Graders

Dear Student,

As you have done in every grade in Acushnet, this summer you will have a summer reading assignment. This year, the book I have selected for you to read over summer vacation is This Can't Be Happening at Macdonald Hall, by Gordon Korman. After reading the book, you must complete a literary organizer. On the last day of school (Monday, June 20, 2011), I will be providing you a copy of both this book and the literary organizer.

On the first day of school (Wednesday, August 31st, 2011), you must bring both the book and the literary organizer to school and turn them in to me. If you misplace the organizer, it will be posted on the school website; paper copies will also be available in the main office all summer. The completed organizer will count as your first quiz grade for your 6th grade year.

I look forward to seeing you in September and talking about this exciting book!

Happy Reading!
